- (e) a representative of the Examinations Council of Zambia;
- (f) a representative of the Teaching Service Commission; and
- (g) two other persons with expertise in matters relating to teaching.

(2) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Council if the person—

- (a) has been adjudged bankrupt under any written law;
- (b) in the case of a teacher, has committed any professional misconduct within a period of five years preceding the appointment;
- (c) is in lawful custody or the person's freedom of movement is restricted under any law in force in or outside Zambia on the date of the appointment;
- (d) in the case of a teacher, has been de-registered in accordance with section fourteen;
- (e) is declared to be of unsound mind under the Mental Disorders Act; or
- (f) has been convicted of an offence under any other written law and sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding six months without the option of a fine.

Cap. 305

(3) The Minister shall appoint the Chairperson of the Council from among the members.

(4) The members of the Council shall elect the Vice-Chairperson of the Council from among themselves.

(5) The Minister shall publish the names and designation of the members of the Council in a daily newspaper of general circulation in Zambia.

Functions of Council

6. (1) The functions of the Council are to—

- (a) register teachers;
- (b) regulate the professional conduct of teachers;
- (c) accredit colleges of education, monitor quality control and assurance of education facilities and services;
- (d) develop, maintain and improve appropriate standards of qualification in the teaching profession and promote continuing professional development amongst teachers;

- (e) develop, promote and enforce internationally comparable teaching profession practice standards so as to improve the quality of education in Zambia and promote an understanding of professional ethics amongst the teachers;
 - (f) create awareness of the importance of protecting the public against unsound teaching practices and ensure that the rules and guidelines for professional ethics are responsive to the expectations of the public and those who rely on the teaching profession;
 - (g) investigate allegations of professional misconduct and impose such sanctions as may be necessary;
 - (h) advise the Government on matters relating to the teaching profession;
 - (i) facilitate the acquisition of knowledge by teachers through the establishment of technical libraries, and the provision of monetary grants, books, apparatus and any other facilities necessary to achieve that end;
 - (j) raise the character and status of the teaching profession to promote honourable and good practice and where necessary, declare any particular teaching practice to be undesirable for all, so as to increase the confidence of the public in teachers;
 - (k) promote, protect and advance the general interests of teachers;
 - (l) collaborate with the relevant unions on conditions of service and remuneration of teachers;
 - (m) provide a forum for the communication and interchange of views on matters relating to the teaching profession and disseminate these views to the public; and
 - (n) do all such other things as are necessary or incidental to the performance of its functions under this Act.
- (2) The Council may—
- (a) determine and levy fees that the Council considers necessary to finance its activities under this Act;
 - (b) determine the fees payable for an inspection conducted for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (c) determine what portion of any fee is payable in respect of any part of a year and the date on which the fee or portion thereof is payable.

(3) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Council shall not be affected by any person's absence from any meeting of the Council or by reason that a person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

Registrar,
Deputy
Registrar
and other staff

7. (1) The Council shall appoint a Registrar, who shall be the chief executive officer of the Council, on such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

(2) The Registrar shall be the Secretary to the Council and shall be responsible for the day-to-day administration of the affairs of the Council, under the supervision of the Council.

(3) The Council shall appoint a Deputy Registrar who shall assist the Registrar in performing the Registrar's duties under this Act.

(4) The Registrar and Deputy Registrar shall be registered teachers.

(5) The Council shall appoint, on such terms and conditions as the Council may determine, such other staff as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Inspectors

8. (1) The Council shall appoint suitably qualified persons as inspectors to ensure compliance with this Act.

(2) The Council shall provide an inspector with a certificate of appointment which shall be prima facie evidence of the inspector's appointment as such.

(3) An inspector shall, in performing any function under this Act—

- (a) be in possession of the certificate of appointment referred to under subsection (2); and
- (b) show the certificate of appointment to any person who requests to see the certificate or is subject to an investigation or inspection for purposes of this Act.

(4) An inspector may, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, at any reasonable time, without prior notice, and on the authority of a warrant, enter any premises that the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe is used for the commission of an offence or contrary to the provisions of this Act, and—

- (a) search the premises;
- (b) search any person on the premises if the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has possession of an article, document or record that has a bearing on an inspection or investigation, except that a person shall only be searched by a person of the same sex;

- (c) take extracts from, or make copies of any book, document or record that is on the premises and that has a bearing on an inspection or investigation;
 - (d) demand the production of, and inspect, relevant certificates; and
 - (e) make such inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act or any other law on which an inspection or investigation is based, have been complied with.
- (5) A person who—
- (a) delays or obstructs an inspector in the performance of the inspector's functions under this Act;
 - (b) refuses to give an inspector such reasonable assistance as the inspector may require for the purpose of performing the inspector's functions;
 - (c) gives an inspector false or misleading information in answer to an inquiry made by the inspector; or
 - (d) impersonates an inspector or presents oneself to be an inspector;

Cap. 305

Changes in detail

13. A person registered under this Act shall notify the Registrar of any change in the particulars relating to the registration, within seven days of the change.

Cancellation of registration

14. (1) The Council shall cancel the registration of a teacher if—

- (a) the Council has reasonable grounds to believe that the registration was obtained through fraud, misrepresentation or concealment of any material fact;
- (b) the teacher is found guilty of professional misconduct under this Act or the Code of Ethics;
- (c) the teacher is convicted of an offence under any written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine; or
- (d) since the registration, circumstances have arisen disqualifying the teacher from registration.

(2) The Council shall, before cancelling the registration under subsection (1), give the teacher an opportunity to be heard.

(3) The Council may, before cancelling the registration of a teacher, suspend the teacher for such period and on such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

(4) Where the Council cancels a certificate of registration under this section, the name of the teacher shall not be restored except on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Council and upon payment of the prescribed fee.

15. (1) A teacher shall apply to the Council for a practising certificate in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Application for practising
certificate

(2) The Council shall, within thirty days of receipt of an application under subsection (1) and where the application meets such requirements as may be prescribed, issue the applicant with a practising certificate.

(3) The Council shall reject an application which does not meet the requirements of this Act, and shall inform the applicant, in writing, and give the reasons for the rejection.

16. (1) A practising certificate shall be renewed every three years in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Renewal of
certificate

(2) A practising certificate that is not renewed in accordance with subsection (1) is void.

(3) A teacher who practises or provides any teaching service during any period in which a practising certificate is void commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or to both.

17. (1) The Council shall cancel a practising certificate if the holder—

 - (e) commits an offence under this Act or contravenes the Code of Ethics; or
 - (f) has been convicted of an offence under any written law and sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding six months without the option of a fine.

(2) The Council shall, before cancelling a practising certificate under this section, give the holder of the practising certificate an opportunity to be heard.

(3) The Council may, before cancelling the practising certificate of a teacher, suspend the teacher for such period and on such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

(4) Where a certificate of registration is cancelled under this Act, the practising certificate held by the holder of the certificate of registration shall be void and shall be surrendered to the Council.

Regulations relating to practising certificates

18. The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the recommendation of the Council, make regulations to provide for—

- (a) the terms and conditions for the issuance of practising certificates;
- (b) the type of continuing professional development and training and any other information required for the issuance of a practising certificate; and
- (c) any other matter necessary for purposes of this Act.

Conditions of certificate

19. A certificate issued under this Part shall contain such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

Prohibition of transfer of certificate

20. A certificate issued under this Part shall not be transferred to a third party.

Re-registration

21. Where a certificate of registration or practising certificate has been cancelled or suspended, the holder of the certificate of registration or practising certificate may, subject to such terms and conditions as the Council may determine, apply for reregistration.

22. (1) A person whose certificate of registration or practising certificate is destroyed or lost may apply to the Registrar for a duplicate certificate in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of a prescribed fee.

Duplicate
certificate

(2) The Registrar may, upon receipt of an application under subsection (1), issue a duplicate certificate of registration or practising certificate, as the case may be, to the applicant.

23. (1) The Registrar shall keep and maintain a register of all persons registered under this Act in which the Registrar shall enter the details and particulars relating to—

Register

- (a) registered teachers;
- (b) the applications rejected and the reasons for the rejection; and
- (c) any other information as the Council may determine.

(2) The Register shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar at the offices of the Council, and shall be open for inspection by members of the public during normal office hours upon payment of such fees as the Council may determine.

(3) The Registrar may, upon application by any person, issue to the person a certified extract from the Register or a copy of a certificate of registration or practising certificate, upon payment of such fee as the Council may determine.

24. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Council, make regulations prescribing the circumstances and manner in which a teacher—

Removal and restoration of name on
Register

- (a) may be removed from the Register; and
- (b) who is removed from the Register, may be restored on the Register and the fee to be paid for the restoration.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a teacher who is removed from the Register ceases to be registered as a teacher.

(3) The Council may, where a holder of a practising certificate does not intend to practise for a specified period of time, maintain the name of the holder of the practising certificate on the Register, in a nonpractising category, for that period of time.

25. (1) The Registrar shall, on the direction of the Council, cause copies of the Register and any alterations thereof, or additions thereto, to be printed and published in such manner and form as the Council may direct.

Publication of copies of Register

(2) Subject to this Act, a copy of the last published and printed Register shall be evidence admissible in all legal proceedings of what is contained in that Register and the absence of the name of a teacher or student from that copy, shall be prima facie evidence that the teacher or student is not registered.

Holding out
as teacher

26. (1) A person shall not, unless the person is registered as a teacher and holds a practising certificate under this Act—

- (a) practise as, be employed as, offer teaching services as, or hold out to be, a teacher;
- (b) adopt, use or exhibit the titles “ registered teacher ” or any other title or abbreviation of like description; or
- (c) do anything likely to lead persons to infer that the person is a registered teacher.

(2) A person or body corporate shall not employ or offer employment to a person requiring registration under this Act.

(3) A teacher shall not permit the teacher’s name to be used by a person who is not a registered teacher.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, or to both.

Offences regarding registered teachers

27. (1) A person shall not—

- (a) make or cause to be made an unauthorised entry, an alteration or erasure in the Register or a certified copy of an entry in the Register or a certificate of registration or other certificate issued under this Act;
- (b) impersonate or use the title of a registered teacher while not registered as such under this Act;
- (c) procure, or attempt to procure, registration under this Act, by fraud, misrepresentation or the concealment of a material fact; or
- (d) forge a certificate of registration or other certificate issued under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding seven hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years, or to both.

Recognition of foreign qualifications

28. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Council, by statutory instrument, recognise any foreign qualifications for purposes of registration under this Act.

(2) The Council may register a person as a teacher under this Act, who is not a citizen of Zambia or is not practising or working as a teacher in Zambia prior to the application, if that person—

- (a) is engaged to work as a teacher in Zambia under an international agreement entered into by the Government of the Republic of Zambia; or
- (b) undertakes such number of courses as the Council may determine and passes the final examination for the courses.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Immigration and Deportation Act, 2010, an immigration officer shall not, without the recommendation of the Council, issue an employment or entry permit to a person who intends to practise, or be employed, as a teacher in Zambia.

Act. No 18
of 2010

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years, or to both.

29. (1) A person commits an offence if that person—

- (a) makes or causes to be made an unauthorised entry, an alteration or erasure in a Register or in any other certified copy of any entry on a Register or a certificate;
- (b) procures, or attempts to procure, for that person or any other person, registration by fraud, false representation or the concealment of a material fact;
- (c) forges or alters any document purporting to be a certificate of registration, a certified copy of any entry on a Register or a certificate;

30. (1) A person aggrieved with a decision of the Council may, within thirty days of service of the decision, appeal to the Minister.

Appeals

(2) A person aggrieved with a decision of the Minister may, within thirty days of service of the decision, appeal to the High Court.

PART IV

TRAINING OF TEACHERS

- Prohibition of provision of unauthorised training programme
- 31. (1) A college of education shall not provide, or hold out as providing, training to prepare students for the teaching profession, unless the training programme is approved by the Council.
- (2) A college of education that contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three hundred thousand penalty units, and to a fine of fifty thousand penalty units for each day during which the offence continues.
- Application for approval of training programme
- 32. (1) A college of education that intends to offer training in the teaching profession shall apply to the Council for approval of the training programme in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of a prescribed fee.
- (2) The Council may, after review of a proposed training programme and in consultation with the Zambia Qualifications Authority, approve the training programme if the training programme meets the requirements of this Act and if the training programme shall adequately prepare students for the teaching profession.
- (3) The Council may accept the successful completion of a training programme approved under subsection (2), as meeting some or all of the requirements for registration in the teaching profession.
- (4) The Council shall not, where a college of education uses a training programme which is not approved under this section, accept the training as meeting the requirements of this Act.
- Review of approved training programme
- 33. The Council shall, at least every five years from the date of the approval of a training programme under section thirty-two, review the approved training programme, including the performance of the graduates of the programme.
- Withdrawal of approval of training programme
- 34. The Council shall withdraw the approval of a training programme, where it considers that—
- (a) the training programme no longer meets the requirements of this Act; or
- (b) the graduates of the training programme consistently fail to meet the standards required by the teaching profession.
- In-service education
- 35. (1) The Council shall, in consultation with the Minister and the appropriate examining authorities introduce an in-service education and training programme for teachers.

(2) The Council shall determine the nature and duration of in-service training that shall be mandatory for all registered teachers.

36. (1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, on the recommendation of the Council, make regulations to provide for continuing professional development and training to be undertaken by teachers.

Continuing professional development and training

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may provide for—

- (a) the nature and extent of continuing professional development and training to be undertaken by teachers;
- (b) the criteria for recognition by the Council of continuing professional development, the training programme and college of education for purposes of this Act;
- (c) the minimum professional and technical training to be provided by a training institution to a person who is to be registered in the teaching profession; and
- (d) the requisite infrastructure of colleges of education, the educational and training curricula, the training equipment and staffing levels.

37. The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Council, make regulations prescribing—

Regulations relating to education and training of teachers

- (a) the conditions for entry to teacher training and the duration of the training;
- (b) the courses and course structure of the training; and
- (c) the system of teacher preparation.

PART V

ACCREDITATION OF COLLEGES OF EDUCATION

38. (1) A college of education shall apply to the Council for accreditation in the prescribed manner and form upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Application for accreditation

(2) The Council shall, upon receipt of an application under subsection (1), direct an inspector to inspect the college of education in respect of which an application is made in order to determine whether it meets the requirements for accreditation.

39. (1) The Council shall, within thirty days of receipt of an application, grant a college of education accreditation if—

Grant of accreditation

- (a) its premises, including any hostel or other buildings used by the learners are suitable and adequate for the purpose;
- (b) it has sufficient and suitable learning resources;
- (c) it shall ensure the provision of, and access to, adequate resources and services required to support the courses, programmes and other educational activities;
- (d) it has a clearly defined and published mission statement;
- (e) it offers approved education and training courses;
- (f) efficient and suitable instruction is provided at the college of education, having regard to the standards of professional competence, effectiveness and commitment required of a teacher;
- (g) the teaching staff employed at the college of education are sufficiently qualified, experienced, registered and are adequate for the purpose;
- (h) it is managed by experienced and qualified staff;
- (i) it has suitable permanent physical structures; and
- (j) it complies with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Council may grant provisional accreditation to a college of education, for a period not exceeding one year, where it determines that the college of education demonstrates reasonable progress towards full accreditation, but is not in conformity with accreditation requirements, and it is able to provide the accredited service in its current condition.

(3) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Council, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the accreditation of colleges of education, including the requirements for staffing, facilities, equipment, procedures, record keeping, data collection, staff training and compliance with the prescribed standards of education and quality assurance.

Refusal to grant
accreditation

40. (1) The Council shall not grant accreditation to a college of education if the college does not meet the requirements of this Act.

(2) The Council shall, where it rejects an application for accreditation, inform the applicant, in writing, within fourteen days of such rejection and give the reasons for the rejection.

41. (1) An accreditation granted under section thirty-nine may be renewed in the prescribed manner and form. Renewal of accreditation

(2) The Council may require reporting of data, including quality assurance information, as a condition for the renewal of accreditation.

(3) The Council may cause inspections to be carried out to confirm continuing compliance with accreditation requirements.

42. (1) The Council shall, where a college of education is in violation of the accreditation requirements, inform it, in writing, of the Council's intention to revoke the accreditation and give it an opportunity to be heard. Revocation of accreditation

(2) The Council shall not revoke the accreditation of a college of education if it takes remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Council within such period as the Council may specify.

(3) The Council shall revoke the accreditation of a college of education if it fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Council or to take any remedial measures within the specified period.

(4) A college of education whose accreditation is revoked under this section shall cease to provide the training in respect of which the accreditation was granted.

43. A college of education that provides training or holds out as an accredited college of education without accreditation from the Council commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding one million penalty units. Prohibition of training without accreditation

44. The Registrar shall keep or cause to be kept a register of accredited colleges of education. Register of Accredited College of Education

PART VI

DISCIPLINARY MATTERS

45. (1) The Teaching Service Commission shall, in consultation with the Council, prescribe and publish a Code of Ethics for teachers. Code of Ethics

(2) The Code of Ethics referred to in subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette and a daily newspaper of general circulation in Zambia upon which it shall bind all persons regulated under this Act.

46. A teacher commits professional misconduct if the teacher— Professional misconduct

- (a) contravenes the provisions of this Act;
- (b) engages in conduct that is dishonest, fraudulent or deceitful;

- (c) commits an offence under this Act or any other law and is sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine;
- (d) engages in any conduct that is prejudicial to the teaching profession or is likely to bring it into disrepute; or
- (e) breaches the Code of Ethics or encourages another teacher to breach or disregard the principles of the Code of Ethics.

Initiation of
action

47. (1) A person who alleges that a teacher has contravened the Code of Ethics or any provision of this Act, may lodge a complaint in the case of a teacher employed—

- (a) in the public service, with the Teaching Service Commission; or
- (b) in the private sector, with the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) The Council or the Teaching Service Commission, as the case may be, may initiate disciplinary action under this section where it has reasonable grounds to believe that a teacher has contravened the Code of Ethics or any provision of this Act.

(3) The Council shall, where the Teaching Service Commission recommends the suspension or removal of a teacher's name from the Register, remove that teacher's name from the Register accordingly.

Disciplinary
Committee

48. (1) The Council shall establish a Disciplinary Committee which shall comprise the following members:

- (a) a Chairperson;
- (b) a Vice-Chairperson;
- (c) two registered teachers employed in the public service;
- (d) one registered teacher employed in the private sector;
- (e) a representative of the Teaching Service Commission serving in the capacity of Commissioner; and
- (f) three representatives of the Teachers' Unions.

(2) The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee shall be legal practitioners qualified to hold, or who have held, high judicial office.

(3) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Disciplinary Committee if the person—

- (a) has committed or been convicted of any professional misconduct;
- (b) is in lawful custody or the person's freedom of movement is restricted under any law in force within or outside Zambia;
- (c) has been convicted of an offence under any law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine; or
- (d) is declared to be of unsound mind under the Mental Disorders Act. Cap. 305

(4) A member of the Disciplinary Committee shall hold office for three years and may be reappointed for a further term of three years.

(5) A member of the Disciplinary Committee shall not serve for more than two terms.

(6) The Chairperson, or in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson, shall preside at every meeting and sitting of the Disciplinary Committee.

49. (1) The functions of the Disciplinary Committee are to hear and determine— Functions of Disciplinary
Committee

- (a) any disciplinary action initiated by the Council against a teacher employed in the private sector or in private practice that has contravened any provision of the Code of Ethics or any provision of this Act; or
- (b) any complaint or allegation that a teacher has committed professional misconduct or contravened a provision of this Act.

(2) The Disciplinary Committee may publicise, as it may consider appropriate, the facts relating to any teacher that is found guilty of, and punished for, professional misconduct.

50. (1) Five members of the Disciplinary Committee shall form a quorum. Proceedings of Disciplinary
Committee

(2) Any question at a sitting or meeting of the Disciplinary Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members of the Disciplinary Committee at the sitting or meeting and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the sitting or meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to that person's deliberative vote.

(3) All proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee shall be in camera.

(4) The Disciplinary Committee shall cause to be kept a record of its proceedings.

(5) A party to a hearing of the Disciplinary Committee may appear in person or be represented by a legal practitioner or, if the party so elects, by any other person.

(6) A decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall be in the form of a reasoned judgment and a copy thereof shall be supplied to each party to the proceedings and to every person affected by the decision.

(7) If a person is present at a sitting or meeting of the Disciplinary Committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration, and in which matter the person or that person's relative is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, that person shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the sitting or meeting, disclose the interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question relating to that matter.

(8) A disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the sitting or meeting at which it is made.

Powers of Disciplinary
Committee

51. (1) The Disciplinary Committee may, for the purposes of any proceedings, hear and receive evidence and may, under the hand of the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee or the Registrar, summon witnesses and require the production of any book, record, document, electronic record or anything required for the purposes of the proceeding, and may through the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee, administer an oath to any witness.

(2) A person summoned to attend before the Disciplinary Committee who, without any reasonable excuse—

- (a) refuses or fails to attend at the time and place specified in the summons or, having attended, leaves without the permission of the Disciplinary Committee;
- (b) having attended, refuses to be sworn or to affirm;
- (c) refuses to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of that person's knowledge and belief, any question lawfully put to that person; or
- (d) refuses to produce any book, record, document or thing which that person has been required by summons to produce;

PART VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

55. (1) The Council or a court of competent jurisdiction shall have jurisdiction over teachers for any act committed outside Zambia which, if it had been committed in Zambia, would have been an offence or professional misconduct under this Act. Jurisdiction over acts committed outside Zambia
- (2) Any proceedings against a teacher under this section which would be a bar to subsequent proceedings against the teacher for the same offence, if the offence had been committed in Zambia, shall be a bar to further proceedings against the teacher under any written law relating to the extradition of persons, in respect of the same offence outside Zambia.
- (3) The Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Act shall apply to proceedings under this Act. Cap. 98
56. A person who contravenes a provision of this Act for which a specific penalty is not provided, is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or to both. General penalty
57. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or an unincorporate body, every director or manager of the body corporate or an unincorporate body shall be liable, upon conviction, as if the director or manager had personally committed the offence, unless the director or manager proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act constituting the offence was done without the knowledge, consent or connivance of the director or manager or that the director or manager took reasonable steps to prevent the commission of the offence. Offences by body corporate or unincorporate body
58. (1) The Council may, in the exercise of its functions under this Act, issue such guidelines as are necessary for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. Guidelines
- (2) The Council shall publish the guidelines, referred to in subsection (1), in the Gazette and a daily newspaper of general circulation in Zambia, and the guidelines shall not take effect until they are so published.
- (3) The guidelines issued by the Council shall bind all persons regulated under this Act.
59. (1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. Regulations
- (2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), regulations under that subsection may provide for—

- (a) the forms, fees payable and the procedure for applications to be made under this Act;
- (b) the information and documents to be submitted in support of applications to be made under this Act;
- (c) the form and the particulars to be entered on the Register;
- (d) the form of the certificate of registration and the conditions under which the certificate of registration is issued;
- (e) the form of the practising certificate and the conditions under which the practising certificate is issued;
- (f) the qualifications for registration of teachers;
- (g) the requirements and conditions for the recognition of local and foreign qualifications accredited by the Council for purposes of registration under this Act;
- (h) continuing professional development for teachers;
- (i) the fixing of fees for professional services and any other fees which are required to be prescribed; and
- (j) generally, the carrying into effect of the purposes of this Act.

SCHEDULE

(Section 3 (2))

ADMINISTRATION OF THE COUNCIL

PART I

THE COUNCIL

1. (1) A member of the Council shall, subject to the other provisions of this Schedule, hold office for a term of three years and may be reappointed for a further term of three years.

Tenure of office and vacancy of member

(2) Upon the expiration of the term for which a member is appointed, the member shall continue to hold office until another member is appointed, but the extension of the period shall not exceed three months.

(3) The office of a member becomes vacant —

- (a) upon the member's death;
- (b) if the member is adjudged bankrupt;
- (c) if the member is absent, without reasonable excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Council, of which the member has had notice, without the prior approval of the Council;
- (d) upon the expiry of one month's notice of the member's intention to resign, given by the member, in writing, to the Minister;
- (e) if the member becomes mentally or physically incapable of performing duties as a member;
- (f) in the case of members of the Council registered under this Act, if the member's registration is cancelled; or
- (g) if the member is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a period exceeding six months without the option of a fine.

(4) Where the office of a member becomes vacant before the expiry of the term of office, the Minister may appoint another person in place of the member who vacates office but that person shall only hold office for the remainder of the term.

Proceedings
of Council

2. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Council may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Council shall meet for the transaction of business at least once in every three months at such places and times as the Council may determine.

(3) Upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, a meeting of the Council may be called by the Chairperson and shall be called if not less than one third of the members so request in writing, except that if the urgency of a particular matter does not permit the giving of notice, a special meeting may be called upon giving a shorter notice.

(4) Eight members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

(5) There shall preside at a meeting of the Council—

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson;
or

(c) in the absence of the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, a member of the Council as the members present may elect from amongst themselves for the purposes of that meeting.

(6) A decision of the Council on any question shall be by a simple majority of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have, in addition to a deliberative vote, a casting vote.

(7) Where a member is for any reason unable to attend a meeting of the Council, the member may, in writing, nominate another person from the same organisation to attend the meeting in that member's stead and that person shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of that meeting.

(8) The Council may invite any person whose presence, in its opinion, is desirable to attend and participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Council, but that person shall not have any vote.

(9) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Council shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Council or any defect in the appointment of any member or by reason that any person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

(10) The Council shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Council and committee established by the Council.

3. (1) The Council may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, constitute a committee and delegate to the committee such functions of the Council as it considers necessary.

Committees
of Council

(2) The Council may appoint as members of a committee constituted under subparagraph (1), persons who are or are not members of the Council and such persons shall hold office for such period as the Council may determine.

(3) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Council, any committee constituted under this paragraph may regulate its own procedure.

4. A member of the Council or any committee shall be paid such allowances as the Minister may determine.

Allowances

5. (1) If any person is present at a meeting of the Council or a committee at which any matter in which that person or the person's relative is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, is the subject of consideration, that person shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to that matter.

Disclosure of interest

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which the disclosure is made.

6. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by or on behalf of the Council, publish or disclose to any unauthorised person, otherwise than in the course of that person's duties, the contents of any document, communication or information whatsoever, which relates to, and which has come to that person's knowledge in the course of that person's duties under this Act.

Prohibition of publication or disclosure of information to unauthorised
person

(2) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) A person who, having information which to the knowledge of that person has been published or disclosed in contravention of subparagraph (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates the information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

Immunity of member and
staff

7. An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Council or a committee, or a member of staff of the Council, for or in respect of any act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance, or purported exercise or performance, of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.

PART II

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Funds of Council

8. (1) The funds of the Council shall consist of such moneys as may—

- (a) be appropriated by Parliament;
- (b) be paid to the Council by way of fees, levy, grants or donations; or
